All good things

A weekend of wine and food just for Joburgers – the Jo'burg Wine Show takes place at Gallagher Estate, Midrand, from June 27-29. Sipping your way through wines from 130 estates is a great way to spend an afternoon or evening. Included in the program are tutored tastings as well as the "Friends for Dinner Theatre", where chefs and wine makers come together and show you how to pair food and wine. Tickets are available from the door at R90 per person or from Computicket at R85 per person. For more information, visit www.wineshow.co.za

A rare opportunity

The Trophy, Gold and Silver medal winners of the Old Mutual Trophy Wine Show will be up for tasting for one night only on June 6. This is one of the most credible of South African wine competitions, expertly convened and judged. Winners truly reflect some of the best the Cape has to offer and wines can be ordered at the show. Tickets cost R75 if ordered from Computicket and R90 at the door, subject to availability. Call Computicket on 083 915 8000 or visit www.computicket.com. Winter wines

Dornier Wines is a boutique winery situated in one of the world's prime winegrowing areas, the Stellenbosch Mountain, and its name is quickly becoming synonymous with quality wines. It is through their philosophy of tradition and perfection that makes their Donatus Range and Dornier Range their perfect ambassadors. Their Donatus Range comprises of their flagship red, featured here and priced at R135, and white blends from 2004. It combines a distinctive local character with their unique individual taste. They achieve this with a careful selection of fruit from their healthy vineyards. All wines are fermented and aged in separate batches and skillfully blended after a long ageing process. The wines offer complexity, elegance and freshness. Their Dornier Range comprises of single variety wines from their Stellenbosch vineyards. They are characterised by clean fruitiness, concentration and perfect balance. The range includes a Cabernet Sauvignon, a Merlot and a Pinotage, priced at R65.
